Predicted and scheduled events

August

- August 21 – A total solar eclipse will take place. This will be the first total solar eclipse of the 21st century for the United States, and the first visible in the continental U.S. since February 26, 1979. Totality will occur along a path curving from Oregon to South Carolina, and will last at most for 2 minutes and 40.2 seconds. The location and time of "greatest eclipse" will be on the western edge of Christian County, Kentucky, at 36.9715 degrees north and 87.6559 degrees west, occurring at 18:25 UTC.<sup>[1]</sup>

October

- October 26 – The collection of records established by the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection Act of 1992 must be completely disclosed to the public.<sup>[2]</sup>

Events

January

- January 1 – Nevada's ballot initiative legalizing recreational marijuana officially goes into effect.<sup>[3]</sup>
- January 3 – Four people kidnap a mentally disabled man in Chicago, Illinois and livestream their torture of him on Facebook, prompting widespread reactions on social media as well as a statement of condemnation from then President Barack Obama. The four suspects are later arrested and charged with a hate crime.<sup>[4]</sup>
- January 4
  - A Long Island Railroad passenger train collides with buffer stops at Atlantic Terminal in New York City, injuring 103 people.<sup>[5][6]</sup>
  - NASA selects Lucy and Psyche as the 13th and 14th missions of the Discovery Program, the result of a two-year long competition.<sup>[7]</sup>
- January 6
  - After briefing President Barack Obama, the United States Senate, and President-elect Donald Trump, the United States Intelligence Community releases a declassified version of its investigation into Russia's interference in the 2016 presidential election. The report asserts that Russia carried out a massive cyber operation on orders from President Vladimir Putin to influence the election in favor of Trump in a multipronged attack consisting of hacking the Democratic National Committee, use of social media and Internet trolls to spread misinformation, and open propaganda on Russian state media outlets. Trump asserts that the outcome of the election was not affected by the interference, but nonetheless announces his intention to appoint a team to combat international cyber attacks within his first 90 days in office.<sup>[8][9][10]</sup>

January 20:
Donald Trump
becomes U.S. president

- A gunman opens fire at the Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport in Broward County, Florida, killing five people and injuring an additional six, with another 36 people sustaining injuries in the ensuing panic on the tarmac. The suspect is in custody after surrendering to police.<sup>[11]</sup>
- The 115th United States Congress confirms the Electoral College victory of Donald Trump in the 2016 presidential election.<sup>[12]</sup>
